Remembering Him...

Dear Partner in Christ:

During this time of the year, we are reminded about Jesus' death on a cross and resurrection from the dead. Christians hold these biblical facts in common. And, in remembering – we are given strength for our journey as the Body of Christ.

We believe that these redemptive truths point us back to God's sacrifice of His only Son for you and for me. This is why it is so important that we continue to remember those ULTIMATE God's redemptive works together in prayerful celebration with joy!

As we come to this time of the year, we remember the suffering of our Lord, Jesus Christ. We learn how pitiful it was on His way to Calvary. We remember His word at the last supper: "each time we break the bread, we remember." We remember His unbelievable pain on the Cross of Calvary. Because of this, nothing can separate us from the love of God that is in Jesus. We remember that historic Sunday morning (first day of the week) when death could not hold him. We remember when the angel of the Lord said to Mary Magdalene and the other Mary: "He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay" (Mat. 28:6).

Remembering what Christ did for us will, indeed, give us strength for our journey of faith. In this journey, let just also remember that there is no major victory in life without "pain." We cannot have true testimony without passing a test of life. The apostle James was right when he said: "My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work...(1:204 KJV).

Thus, we see clearly that this celebration reminds us about something else: the seed of the woman truly bruised the head, and the seed of the serpent also bruised His heel (Gen. 3:15). The deception that commenced on the "Tree of Life" in the Garden of Eden ended victoriously on another tree, the Cross of Calvary. Our first Adam, through disobedience, lost his paradise; our last Adam, Jesus Christ, through obedience, redeems it. He is the only way to that heavenly paradise. He has therefore given us the ministry of reconciliation. We join you in this unique celebration in "remembrance of Him."

May His resurrected power transforms hearts today, flows in our homes and works/businesses, blesses all that we do in our journey.

Thank you for your partnership with us – blessings!

Your partner in Christ,

R. Zarwulugbo Liberty, Pastor
