SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT THE JALLAHS

We are pleased to announce to our partners and friends that Dr. John K. Jallah and his wife, Deloris are not part of our ministries for now. The Lord has called them to concentrate on their own ministry, Glory To God International. The Jallahs joined us about two years ago and have been helping out in our Boynton Beach Office every Wednesday. Truly, we missed them, but they must obey God.

In a meeting with the Jallahs few weeks ago, they explained to us the new direction/vision God has given them. Esther and I were touched by their excitement, conviction of God's direction and prayed with them. Though they had been a great help to our ministry, but we rejoiced because the will of God is the best in the life of every Christian. We seek your prayers for their ministry and for God to also raise up other volunteers for AICM. The Lord has been so faithful by calling people to help us out in many ways. We are certain that He will bring the replacement for the Jallahs.

REPORT ON THE CHURCH OF THE BELIEVERS LIBERIA, WEST AFRICA

By: Varney K. Sirleaf
AICM Correspondent

Elder Abraham K. Zarwulugbo

Like every other church or denomination which stands for the truth and dissemination of the Gospel through the establishment of local and international churches, schools, hospitals and orphanages as well as humanitarian organizations, church of the Believers in Liberia, West Africa is of no exception.

Just to give you a brief history, Church of the Believers was founded by Pastor R. Zarwulugbo Liberty twenty-five years ago on May 20, 1982. He is the president of the national church. The church was not only established to preach the Gospel of Christ alone, but to also provide Christian education in Liberia.

In view of the above, the church, in partnership with Africa International Christian Mission, AICM is operating a standardize High School, called Christian High School located between 15th and 16th Streets, Sinkor-Monrovia. The Africa International Christian Mission, Inc. is operating an orphanage, Koko Children's Village through the church. Below is the subsequent discussion of activities the church is involved in, Liberia, Africa.

In an interview with the field superintendent of the national church Elder Abraham K. Zarwulugbo reiterated that Pastor Liberty established the church in 1982. With grave excitement Elder Zarwulugbo said, "God called him to take the Gospel of Christ to everyman everywhere. Through his tireless efforts with his wife Mrs. Esther Liberty and others the church is being blessed today, winning more souls to Jesus Christ." There has been massive growth and development over the years.

Donation to this Ministry is tax deductible; we are a non-for-profit organization with 501c(3).

The Lord had planted nineteen churches along with other para-church organizations.

In the wake of all these developments, the church decided to erect a new edifice to serve as its Headquarters Church and Convention Center. The construction of this 1,500 - seated church is in progress and may be ready for dedication this year. The building project has been delayed due to the 80 percent unemployment rate in Liberia. "But we thank God for His faithfulness to us, for AICM and Christian High school sizable contributions toward this worthy cause." Elder Zarwulugbo concluded.

THROUGH AICM MINISTRIES

Be a blessing to war-wearied children in Liberia, West Africa, who lost their parents during the 7 year civil war conflict.

BE A GOOD SAMARITAN....

Give hope to some of these hopeless children, wounded in the grip of war and left parentless. Will you be a father or mother to some of these orphans?

KOKO CHILDREN'S VILLAGE BY: VARNIE K. SIRLEAF AICM CORRESPONDENT, LIBERIA

The Africa International Christian Mission (AICM) operated Orphanage, Koko Children's Village thanks all the partners and friends that are supporting the orphanage program in Liberia through AICM. Koko Village was established in September 2003 as a conduit through which AICM operates to cater to the 450 plus orphans in Liberia.

The current Directress, Ms. Roseline Liberty (the oldest daughter of Pastor Liberty) discloses that there are eight staff members working at the village and that the children are well-fed and healthy. She thanked God for the payment of the lease for this year and for the ongoing Koko Village building project. Madam Rose, as she is affectionately called, prays that God would complete what He has begun through donors for the first phase of the project. She expects the completion of the first phase before October, which is also the end of their lease. The Landlord has decided not to renew the lease agreement with KoKo Village. Madam Rose lamented that the Mission would save $2,000 yearly when the orphans are moved in their own home.

With immense joy Ms. Liberty said that the village had received some assistance from individuals and other Non-governmental organizations during the Christmas's Season. Some of the individuals and organizations that assisted the village include: Mother Levi Williams-a humanitarian contributed 1 (one) five-gallon cooking oil and LD $2, 000. Miss Nana, a Ghanaian national, who works with the Security Sector Reform responsible for the restructuring of all security apparatus in Liberia, contributed 1 (one) goat, 1 (one) 100lbs bag of Rice and 1 (one) five-gallon of cooking oil. Mr. Abraham Roberts of the Liberian Seamen Union donated half bag (50lbs) of rice, fish, meat and some kitchen utensils. On the other hand, AICM, as usual, provided clothing additional assorted food, toys etc. for the orphans in Liberia.

In conclusion, Ms. Roseline Liberty thanks all the partners and friends of AICM for their prayers and financial support. She made an SOS (Safe our soul) call for prayers and continuous assistance to all Christ-loving people, charitable organizations, and philanthropists – "If you can help somebody, your labor will not be in vain."

SPECIAL FEATURE ON: CHRISTIAN HIGH SCHOOL By: Varnie K. Sirleaf AICM Correspondent, Liberia

BRIEF HISTORY

In her effort to continue preaching the Gospel of Christ, the Church of the Believers (a ministry of AICM) in 2000 established the Christian High School in Monrovia, Liberia to impact knowledge through secular and Christian education to the future leaders of Liberia. As one anonymous writer once puts it, "wisdom without knowledge is worthless."

In an interview with Elder Zarwulugbo by AICM Correspondent, he said that the Church of the Believers through the leadership of Pastor R. Zarwulugbo Liberty in 2000 decided to operate a high school in Monrovia to help the Church and the society as a whole.

To fulfill this vision, the Church bought the assets of the former Wilson Memorial High School from Mr. Herbert Wilson for L$90,000. The Christian High School is one of the outstanding schools in Liberia; its students are passing in the West African Examination Council's exam administered yearly for the 9th and 12th graders in West Africa.

Since her establishment, the school has changed two of her principals, namely: (1) Mrs. Deborah Zardon and (2) James Gbarteah. The current principal is Pastor Prosperous Robinson. God is using Pastor Prosperous wonderfully and the school is being blessed. "Our new principal is promoting the vision of AICM and the church.

In an interview with the Principal, Pastor Robinson said that the school had experienced some difficulties when he took over last year. He stressed that there has been much improvement since his ascendancy to that high office of Christian High School.

Pastor Prosperous Robinson

The enrollment (and administrative restructure) is very encouraging. The finances of the school has improved and its accountability is transparent.

Pastor Robinson further said that he is committed to promote Christian standard in the entire institution as is spelled out in the School Hand book. To provide excellent academic environment for learning we have added (1) additional annex for the 12 graders; (2) the school is being renovated and (3) an additional 5-room restroom was built during the first semester of this academic year", Pastor Robinson said.

ENROLLMENT

Touching on the enrollment, Pastor Robinson was quick to point out again that there has been an increased. "I met about 542 students when I took over as principal last year. We now have about 800-plus students this academic year and more students are expected during the second semester."

SUPPORT AND OTHER PROJECTS

Pastor Prosperous Robinson revealed that the School is not being supported by any group or organization. She depends on its fees from students to pay her expenses. He noted the disappointment the school had when she, after the Civil War, submitted a proposal to the United Nations Mission in Liberia, UNMIL to help renovate the school through her Quick Impact Project. Unfortunately the proposal was not approved on the ground that UNMIL was focusing on the dilapidated schools in the remote parts of Liberia. In spite of the disappointment God is renovating the school and adding new structures.

Pastor Prosperous Robinson seeks for prayers from AICM, individuals and other organizations for the school and help build the future generation of Liberia, Africa and the World. "I am calling on Pastor Liberty to get in the vanguard of soliciting help for the school."

SCHOLARSHIP

The school is blessed with 221 scholarship students. These students are being sponsored by: (1) AICM – 100 students - these are orphans from the orphanages and those living with extended family; (2) the Disarmament and Demobilization Rehabilitation and Reintegration of Ex-combatants, DDDR. The department that focuses on the education of child soldier; (DDRR) is sponsoring 68 students; (3) the school has 47 students on football (25 boys) and kickball (22 girls) scholarship; (4) the J.J. Roberts Foundation in Liberia is supporting 6 students; and (5) the Ministry of Education, Republic of Liberia is also sponsoring 5 students.

Pray for God's guidance as we educate the future generations in Liberia, so that every student will accept Jesus Christ as lord.
